

Club Information Fact Sheet

Adelaide University Scuba Diving Club (AUSC) is one of the largest scuba diving clubs in South Australia. We have over 100 members of varying experience ranging from beginners to dive masters, students and non-students.

Activities Offered

- Snorkelling;
- Scuba diving;
- Freediving; and
- Underwater rugby.

Benefits of Joining

- Assistance with getting your scuba open water certification training (including discounts);
- Local scuba dives organised year round and include week days, weekend, night and dawn dives, and dive trips intra state;
- Social gatherings every Thursday night at the club rooms, regular BBQs;
- Development opportunities to partake in allied courses, including boat handling and seamanship, coastal navigation and marine radio operation, oxygen and resuscitation, and first aid certifications;
- Two well equipped dive boats, a compressor and banks unit for air fills, and equipment hire;
- Participate in UWR trainings, and play competitively in our club UWR team (the Adelaide White Pointers); and
- Meet new dive buddies and friends!

Membership Cost

- Club membership is just $20 (for 12 months); and
- For all non-AU students, AU Sport membership is also required at $88 for 12 months.

Where are we?

The club meets every Thursday at 6:30 p.m. to hire gear, plan scuba dives, and talk all things underwater.

The club is located at University Sports Ground, Foreman Street, West Beach.

Head down Foreman Street, through the gates onto the gravel, turn right and drive to the end. The club rooms are in the green sheds on your right.
